

Grammar_Emphasis_correction

Some of the sentences below contain a mistake. For questions 1–14, correct the sentence by swapping the position of two words only.

Example:

She stayed with us for a week, and she once did never offer to help with the washing up.

never she

She stayed with us for a week, and never once did she offer to help with the washing up.

- 1 Only in Spain can you hear true Flamenco guitar playing.
- 2 Such that the furore concerning his tax affairs was the minister was forced to resign.
- 3 Not only does he smoke, he also drinks; his health problems are entirely self-inflicted.
- 4 My colleagues don't think this is such a good proposal, and quite frankly, neither do I.
- 5 When had he left the room hardly everyone burst out laughing.
- 6 He was stunned. Never anyone had spoken before to him like that.
- 7 There in the Atacama Desert is only a perfect view of the night sky.
- 8 Not until Mark left we did realize that our passports had been stolen.
- 9 Only after a year or so we will know whether the product has been successful.
- 10 Seldom has anyone tried so hard to improve the lot of the poor as George Peabody in 19th century London.
- 11 The school doors burst open; poured out the children, laughing and singing as they ran down the path.
- 12 The report suggests that older people have more shopping binges per month do than their younger counterparts.
- 13 That amazing was the hotel, so we decided to stay a further two weeks.
- 14 I must say the dinner was truly exceptional, as was the conversation, my dear friend.