

Modern Linguistic Theories

SAMPLE TEST Keys

1. Eleanor Rosch
2. specialized
3. f
4. iconic principle of quantity
5. Corpus-based linguistics: b, d, e; Corpus-driven linguistics: a, c, f, g
6. Bloomfield, 1933
7. data mining
8. b; d; e; f
9. an order to shut the window; Bill's decision to shut the window
10. the maxim of relevance
11. script/schema
12. c
13. an image schema
14. Franz Boas, Leonard Bloomfield, Edward Sapir
15. a parse tree
16. index b; icon a; symbol c
17. a strategy employed by a speaker to achieve a variety of goals
18. a prototypical member
19. linguistic annotation
20. Zellig S. Harris
21. BNC, The American National Corpus, The Russian Reference Corpus, The Polish National Corpus, The Czech National Corpus, The Hungarian National Corpus, The Hellenic National Corpus, The German National Corpus, The Slovak National Corpus
22. Teun A. Van Dijk
23. a, c
24. b
25. above (text); beyond (context)
26. London linguistics, Bronislaw Malinowski, John Rupert Firth
27. c
28. society practice
29. arriving
30. c; d; e
31. b
32. Zellig Harris, 1952
33. conceptual core: you + relation: 'enjoy' + atmosphere and comfort; grammatical core: subject (you) + verb phrase (predicate: may enjoy + object: atmosphere, comfort); nominal grounding: the; clausal grounding: may enjoy; setting elements: here
34. b
35. the maxim of relevance
36. the meaning the use of language
37. the monitor corpus approach, the Web as Corpus, the sample corpus approach
38. horoscope
39. the entire corpus
40. At his inauguration in 2017