

Vocabulary_Adjective + preposition

Some of the dependent prepositions in the sentences below are wrong. Tick the sentences that are correct. For the incorrect sentences, write the correct preposition.

- 1 Their marriage has been fraught by difficulties that neither could have foreseen.
- 2 Diana feels very nostalgic with the friends she left behind when she moved house.
- 3 The twins have been inseparable from each other since birth.
- 4 The old custom is rooted with the folklore of the country.
- 5 Processed food is often deficient in essential nutrients and contains far too many artificial chemicals.
- 6 His success is attributed to his talent and a few lucky breaks.
- 7 Surveys have revealed that some people are more susceptible by stress than others.
- 8 A person is eligible for student membership if he or she is following a recognized course.
- 9 The manufacturing industry is still buoyant but cannot remain immune from current economic trends.
- 10 The decision was symptomatic with a system going soft.
- 11 I was conscious by the fact that there was someone watching me.
- 12 The warm hospitality was certainly conducive with an easy-going atmosphere.
- 13 However hard they try, many politicians are divorced from reality.
- 14 I was half inclined to believe you until I read the letter.
- 15 The director's latest film is indicative to contemporary moral and social disintegration.