

HEADLINES 2019

Analyze the lexical, grammatical and syntactical peculiarities of the following headlines:

1. 'Catastrophic' storm pounds northern Bahamas (The Guardian)

2. Norwegian killer who choked British father to death after 4am row about noise at Phuket hotel appears not to have a care in the world as he swims in the pool and tops up his tan (The Daily mail)

3. Historic Hurricane Dorian unleashing

'catastrophic' blow in northern Bahamas

(The Washington Post)

4. Hong Kong students boycott classes as Chinese media warns 'end is coming' School and university students call for democracy after weekend of violent clashes. (The Guardian).

5. The second strongest storm in HISTORY: Hurricane Dorian crawls across the Bahamas at record slow speed destroying 13,000 homes with 225mph gusts as millions evacuate in the US amid fears for Florida, Georgia and the Carolinas

(The Daily mail)

6. Berlin zoo celebrates rare birth of panda twins. Meng Meng delivered two cubs, which must eventually be returned to China

(The Guardian)

7. ADOPTED SON OF FORMER TORY MINISTER ADMITS MANSLAUGHTER OF CHILD CRUSHED BY CAR SEAT

(The Telegraph)

8. TATA STEEL TO CLOSE NEWPORT PLANT WITH LOSS OF UP TO 380 JOBS

(The Independent)

9. ‘Pray for us’: Dorian snapping trees, tearing off roofs in the Bahamas

(The Washington Post)

10. THOUSANDS OF EASYJET PASSENGERS GROUNDED ON SECOND DAY OF FLIGHT CHAOS

(The Independent)

11. WHAT LESSONS CAN JFK’S PLEDGE TO REACH THE MOON PROVIDE FOR TRUMP?

(The Observer)

12. BROOKLYN AIRBNB ‘ROOM’ GOES VIRAL AFTER GUEST SHARES VIDEO OF CUPBOARD UNDER THE STAIRS (The Independent)

13. CABINET MEETING CALLED AMID GROWING SPECULATION ELECTION WILL BE ANNOUNCED THIS WEEK

(The Telegraph)

14. How quickly can a general election be held - and will it happen before Brexit?

(The Telegraph)

15. TEACHERS’ STARTING SALARIES TO RISE TO £30,000

(The Telegraph)