

Modal verbs 2

For questions 1–16, decide if the modal verbs in these sentences are correct. Put a tick next to the sentences that are correct. For the incorrect sentences, write the correct modal verb in the box.

1	If you don't get your car back in time for the interview, you will always borrow mine.
2	I gave up in the end. I couldn't make head nor tail of what the lecturer was saying.
3	You know, you could say thank you once in a while!
4	I think we can fit you in next week. How does that sound?
5	What do you think of my report? I will always do it again.
6	At what age must people get married in your country?
7	I'm terribly sorry, but you couldn't use a dictionary for this test.
8	Where were you? You should have been here ages ago!
9	You need to be more careful. You could have hurt someone.
10	'Where's the dog?' 'I don't know. It can't have gone far.'
11	He's so lazy. He will stay up late and then sleep until lunchtime.
12	Might I speak to the manager, please?
13	It's late. I ought to be getting home.
14	Shall I give you a ring later tonight?
15	Years ago, when we were students, we'd always go out clubbing.
16	He'll be home by now.	