

Grammar_Stative and dynamic verbs 2

For questions 1–12, decide if the verb forms in italics are correct or incorrect. Put a tick next to the sentences that are correct. Correct the verbs that are incorrect.

1

I have been meaning to tell you about my engagement for ages, but it's been difficult to find the right moment. _____

2

If you happen to go the supermarket, we're needing some more milk. _____

3

What on earth's got into you today? Why are you being so difficult? _____

4

Don't be ridiculous, of course there aren't any ghosts here. You imagine things.

5

Janet may come this evening, but I'm doubting it. _____

6

Will you be needing an early morning alarm call, sir? _____

7

My sister's just told me she is having twins. _____

8

The bill seems high, but I suppose we'll have to pay it. _____

9

Will you be wanting to take the car this weekend? _____

10

My daughter does exactly as she is pleasing. _____

11

Where did you find it? I've been needing that for days. _____

12

He's a lousy player and isn't deserving to be in the squad. _____