

Vocabulary_Phrasal verbs_various

For questions 1–10, choose an appropriate verb to complete the phrasal verbs.

1 She caught /caved /drew /thrashed /jumped /dwelled /cut /balked /wrote /played her inspiration from her childhood experiences.

2 He caught /caved /drew /thrashed /jumped /dwelled /cut /balked /wrote /played at the idea of having to do any overtime.

3 It was great holiday and I caught /caved /drew /thrashed /jumped /dwelled /cut /balked /wrote /played up on some much needed sleep.

4 The management team dug their heels in but eventually caught /caved /drew /thrashed /jumped /dwelled /cut /balked /wrote /played in to their demands.

5 The minister, who spoke for almost two hours, caught /caved /drew /thrashed /jumped /dwelled /cut /balked /wrote /played on the spiralling rate of inflation and rising unemployment.

6 I don't think he was ever caught /caved /drew /thrashed /jumped /dwelled /cut /balked /wrote /played out for a life in politics. He's too nice.

7 The spokesman caught /caved /drew /thrashed /jumped /dwelled /cut /balked /wrote /played down news that the company was struggling.

8 If I were Tom, I would have caught /caved /drew /thrashed /jumped /dwelled /cut /balked /wrote /played at the chance.

9 The finer details of the scheme are still being caught /caved /drew /thrashed /jumped /dwelled /cut /balked /wrote /played off by the government.

10 The striker caught /caved /drew /thrashed /jumped /dwelled /cut /balked /wrote /played off his chances of competing in the World Cup yesterday after getting injured again.